

Food For Me Is Gluten Free

This delightful story educates, entertains and inspires. It has been written for children with coeliac disease/ gluten intolerance, for educators, and for anybody responsible for, or in contact with, children who have food allergies.

Information

- Target audience 3 – 12 years
- I in 100 Australians have coeliac disease and children are being newly diagnosed all the time
- This is the only children's picture book in Aus on coeliac disease – unique!
- The book is educational – should be in every primary school, kinder, childcare centre and educational setting where children are present
- Has a place in every school library
- It's a great book for children with other special needs ranging from food allergies to an autism spectrum disorder
- The content avoids a feeling of isolation and enhances a feeling of inclusiveness. It is written from a positive perspective
- The storyline is both educational and entertaining
- Should be in all Medical /hospital settings as a resource
- Every dietician and doctor should have a copy
- Has a world wide English speaking market- NZ, USA, UK
- Has a place in every Public Library

Curriculum Links

Food For Me Is Gluten Free can be incorporated into the following themes/units of study:

- Me
- My Family
- My Community
- Food/Nutrition/Healthy Eating
- Needs Versus Wants
- Healthy Bodies
- Similarities and Differences

Food For Me Must Be Nut Free

This delightful story educates, entertains and inspires. It has been written for children with nut allergies/anaphylaxis, for educators, and for anybody responsible for, or in contact with, children who have nut allergies.

Information

- Target audience 3 – 12 years
- 1 in 50 infants have a nut allergy. Children are being newly diagnosed all the time
- This is the only children's picture book of its kind in Australia and NZ – unique!
- There is legislation about bringing food containing nuts into schools, kindergartens, childcare centres and educational settings now where children are present.
- The book is educational – it needs to be in every primary school, kinder, childcare centre and educational setting where children are present
- Has a place in every school library
- It's a great book for children with other special needs ranging from food allergies to an autism spectrum disorder
- The content avoids a feeling of isolation and enhances a feeling of inclusiveness. It is written from a positive perspective.
- The storyline is both educational and entertaining
- Every dietician, allergy specialist and doctor should have a copy
- Should be in all Medical /hospital settings as a resource
- First aid training companies
- Has a world wide English speaking market- NZ, USA, UK
- Has a place in every Public Library

Curriculum Links

Food For Me Must Be Nut Free can be incorporated into the following themes/units of study:

- Me
- My Family
- My Community
- Food/Nutrition/Healthy Eating
- Needs Versus Wants
- Healthy Bodies
- Similarities and Differences

Corio Bay Kingdom

Corio Bay Kingdom is set in Geelong, The Surf Coast and The Bellarine Peninsula. The features of these areas are showcased in the book including Eastern Beach, The Carousel, The Bollards, Fairy Park, The Barwon River, The Queenscliff Ferry, Torquay surf culture, the beaches at Ocean Grove and Barwon Heads, The You Yangs and Skilled Stadium.

Information

- Target audience 3 – 12 years
- This is the only children's picture book written about the Geelong region – unique!
- The book is educational – it is relevant to primary schools, kindergartens, childcare centres and educational settings where children are present
- Has a place in every school library
- The storyline combines an interesting mix of fact with fiction
- The positive message underlying the story is a connection to one's culture and community
- Has a place in every Public Library

Curriculum Links

Corio Bay Kingdom can be incorporated into the following themes/units of study:

- Me
- My Family
- My Community
- My Environment
- Holidays
- AFL
- The beach
- Victoria/Australia
- Fantasy

Ballarat Wonderland

Ballarat Wonderland is set in Ballarat and surrounds. The features of these areas are showcased in the book including Sovereign Hill, Her Majesty's Theatre, Ballarat Wildlife Park, Lake Wendouree, The Botanical Gardens, The Tramway Museum, Mount Buninyong, Tuki Trout Farm and The Tangled Maze.

Information

- Target audience 3 – 12 years
- This is the only children's picture book written about the Ballarat region – unique!
- The book is educational – it is relevant to primary schools, kindergartens, childcare centres and educational settings where children are present
- Has a place in every school library
- The storyline combines an interesting mix of fact with fiction
- The positive message underlying the story is about finding wonder and awe in every experience
- Has a place in every Public Library

Curriculum Links

Ballarat Wonderland can be incorporated into the following themes/units of study:

- Me
- My Family
- My Community
- My Environment
- Holidays
- The gold rush period
- Victoria/Australia
- Australian history
- Fantasy

Louitt Bay Treasure

Louitt Bay Treasure is set along The Great Ocean Road in the popular seaside resort of Lorne, Victoria. The features of this area are showcased in the book including Teddy's Lookout, The Pier-To-Pub Swim, Erskine Falls, Allenvale glow worms, and the Lorne Surf beach.

Information

- Target audience 3 – 12 years
- This is the only children's picture book written about the Lorne region – unique!
- The book is educational – it is relevant to primary schools, kindergartens, childcare centres and educational settings where children are present
- Has a place in every school library
- The storyline combines an interesting mix of fact with fiction
- The positive message underlying the story is about finding wonder and awe in every experience
- Has a place in every Public Library

Curriculum Links

Louitt Bay Treasure can be incorporated into the following themes/units of study:

- Me
- My Family
- My Community
- My Environment
- Holidays
- The Beach
- The Coast
- Victoria/Australia
- Pirates

Melbourne Magic

The city of Melbourne comes alive in this beautifully written and illustrated picture book about Melbourne and beyond. All the iconic sights of Melbourne are featured in this book including Luna Park, Flinders St Station, Scienceworks, IMAX, Eureka Skydeck 88, The Aquarium, The Zoo and Melbourne Museum. Journey to the outskirts of Melbourne and visit Phillip Island, Healesville Sanctuary, Werribee Zoo and Puffing Billy!

Information

- Target audience 3 – 12 years
- This is the only children's picture book of its kind written about Melbourne and surrounds – unique!
- The book is educational – it is relevant to primary schools, kindergartens, childcare centres and educational settings where children are present
- Has a place in every school library
- The storyline combines an interesting mix of fact with fiction
- The positive message underlying the story is a connection to one's culture and community
- Has a place in every Public Library

Curriculum Links

Melbourne Magic can be incorporated into the following themes/units of study:

- Me
- My Family
- My Community
- My Environment
- My city
- Grand parents
- Holidays
- Animals
- Trains
- Sport
- Victoria/Australia